1. A dry run with [REDACTED] was conducted by Messrs. Carpenter, Sourwine and Mandel, of the staff of the Senate Internal Security Committee. It went pretty badly. The interpreter performed very badly and it was difficult to get an overall picture from answers which occasionally missed the questions and vice versa. Further sessions will have to take place.

2. I informed Mr. Sprankle, Acting Chief Clerk of the House Appropriations Committee, that in certain countries on his trip abroad we would ask CIA personnel to be in touch with him to be of any assistance he may desire. Mr. Sprankle was appreciative of this arrangement. (See memorandum from DD/A to Mr. Helms this date).
